the Court finds that the government has acted with due diligence in seeking foreign

THIS MATTER comes before the Court on the United States of America's motion to continue the trial date. Having considered the entirety of the record and files herein, the Court finds that the government has acted with due diligence in seeking foreign evidence from Canada as to defendant Harminder Singh, and that a failure to grant the continuance would likely result in a miscarriage of justice. Due to the complexity of the case, the recent disclosure of foreign evidence which the government intends to use at trial against defendant Harminder Singh, and the need for continuity of counsel and effective assistance of counsel, the Court overrules any objection by the defendants, and finds that a continuance will allow the government and defendant Harminder Singh to adequately prepare for trial.
